

AMYL NITRITE, Poppers.

What is it? This comes in liquid form in small bottles and the vapour from the bottle is inhaled through the nose.

The highs It reduces blood pressure and makes the heart pump faster, causing a “rush”, dizziness and sometimes a blackout. Some users claim it heightens sexual arousal.

The low These include dizziness, blackouts, headaches, and vomiting. Amyl can be dangerous to those who have low blood pressure or a heart condition and swallowing the drug is also dangerous.

Health Promotion Unit.